will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within seven days, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within one month from the date of receipt of the representation. Since the petitioner has been transferred to accommodate the person at his own expenses, showing on administrative ground and further the fact that the petitioner is still continuing, it is directed that till the representation is decided, the petitioner shall be allowed to continue on the present place of posting. While deciding the representation, respondent No.3 may also be heard.

It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the parties may avail the remedy available under the law.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.

Consequently M.W.P.No.2391/2004 also stands disposed of.
